

November 3, 2015

An Emergency meeting of the Madison County Board of Elections was called to order by Chairman Dyatt Smathers at 1:10 PM this date in the Mars Hill Library, Mars Hill North Carolina. Present for the meeting were Dyatt Smathers, Chair; Ray Lewis, Secretary, Jerry Wallin, Member; attending by phone.

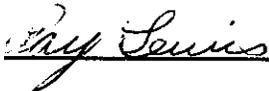

The purpose of the meeting was to discuss the possibility of extending the voting time in the Municipal elections being held this date.

Upon a motion by Mr. Lewis, with a second from Mr. Smathers the Board voted unanimously to request that the State Board of Elections extend the voting time in all three Municipalities by an additional twenty minutes. The polls would be kept open until 7:50 PM.
